Virginia Space Grant Consortium

Partnering with NASA, Industry, and Institutions to Provide STEM Education, Promote STEM Research, and Prepare a Diverse STEM Workforce.

We provide:

- Scholarships and Fellowships
- Free, Award-winning STEM Courses and Programs
- Internships with NASA and Industry
- NASA Summer Academies
- Educator Professional Development
- STEM Research Opportunities
- Uncrewed Systems Education
- Cybersecurity and AI Education
- Pilot Training

Members:

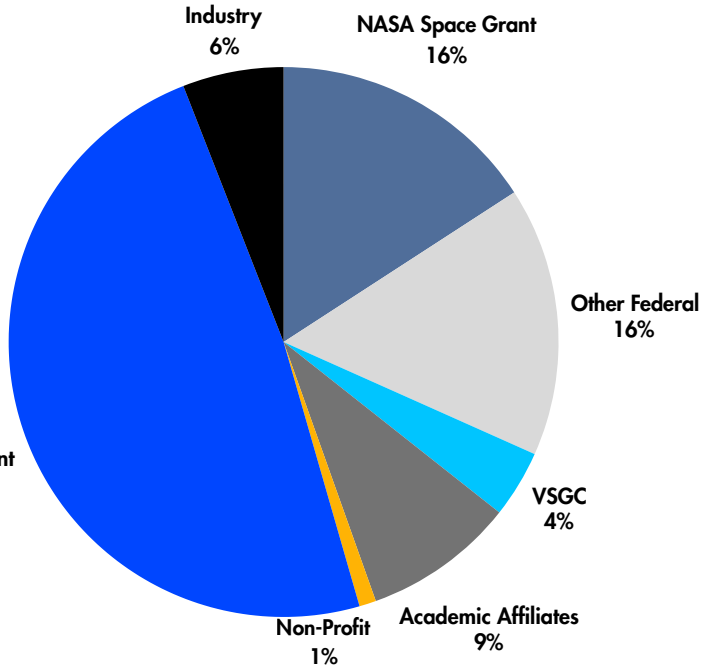
- Hampton University
- MathScience Innovation Center
- NASA Langley Research Center
- NASA Wallops Flight Facility
- Old Dominion University
- Science Museum of Virginia
- State Council of Higher Education for Virginia
- University of Virginia
- Virginia AeroSpace Business Association
- Virginia Air and Space Science Center
- Virginia Community College System
- Virginia Department of Aviation
- Virginia Department of Education
- Virginia Innovation Partnership Corporation
- Virginia Tech
- William & Mary

We have worked with more than 800 non-member program partners.

600 Butler Farm Rd., Suite 2222, Hampton, VA, 23666 757-766-5210 vsgc@odu.edu www.vsgc.odu.edu

Since 1989...

~95%	Participants pursuing STEM studies or employed in STEM careers
At least $4	Of other funding is leveraged for every NASA Space Grant dollar
>22,000	K-12 students impacted
>$9 million	Awarded in scholarships and fellowships
~20,000	Educators provided professional development
>6,000	Paid STEM internships provided
~40%	Female participants
~25%	Underrepresented minority participants

Chris Jones participated in VASTS in 2016 and now works on the Northrop Grumman Antares team at NASA's Wallops Flight Facility.


Funding Sources FY 2024-25