

Virginia Space Grant Consortium

Partnering with NASA, Industry, and Institutions to Provide STEM Education, Promote STEM Research, and Prepare a Diverse STEM Workforce

We provide:

Scholarships and Fellowships
Free, Award-winning STEM Courses and Programs
Internships with NASA and Industry
NASA Summer Academies
Educator Professional Development
STEM Research Opportunities
Uncrewed Systems Education
Cybersecurity Education
Pilot Training

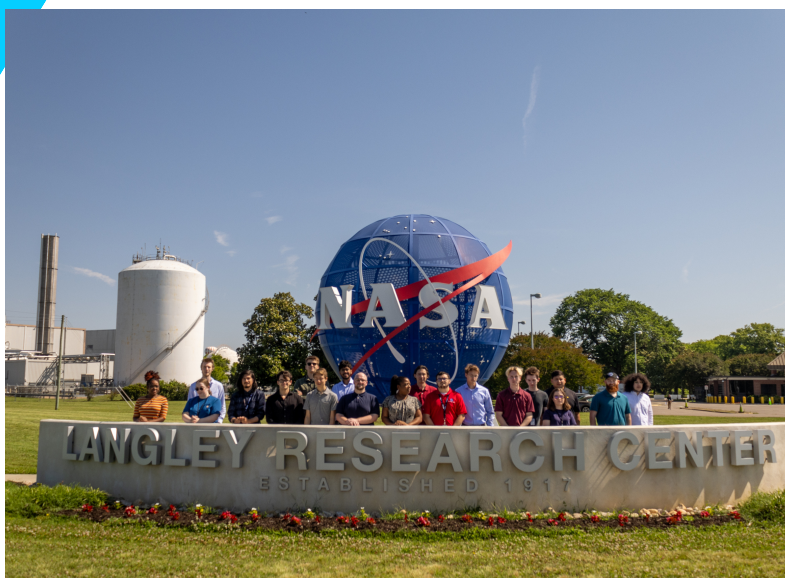

Members:

Hampton University
MathScience Innovation Center
NASA Langley Research Center
NASA Wallops Flight Facility
Old Dominion University
Science Museum of Virginia
State Council of Higher Education for Virginia
University of Virginia
Virginia Aerospace Business Association
Virginia Air and Space Science Center
Virginia Community College System

Virginia Department of Aviation
Virginia Department of Education
Virginia Innovation Partnership Corporation
Virginia Tech
William and Mary

We have worked with more than 800 non-member program partners.

Since 1989...

~95%

Participants pursuing STEM studies or employed in STEM

At least $4

Of other funding is leveraged for every NASA
Space Grant dollar

>22,000

K-12 students impacted

>$9
million

Awarded in scholarships and fellowships

~20,000

Educators provided professional development

>6,000

Paid STEM internships provided

~40%

Female participants

~25%

Underrepresented minority participants

Chris Jones participated in VASTS in 2016 and now works on the Northrop Grumman Antares team at NASA's Wallops Flight Facility.

Funding Sources (FY 2023)

@VSpaceGrantConsortium

@vaspacegrant

@vaspacegrant

@Virginia-Space-Grant-Consortium

@VirginiaSpaceGrantConsortium